Were Those Reports About Judge Dick Retiring

'MY MENTAL VIGOR UNIMPAIRED'

"I Have Served Four Years Beyond the Age for Retiring, but Have Example of Eminent Judges for Remaining."

The reports to the effect that United States District Judge Dick will shortly retire from the bench were somewhat previous, as the sequel will show. A reporter found Judge Dick at his fine old place, on church street, and though somewhat weak yet from his recent illness, he has the appearance of a man with years of usefulness still left.

The reporter showed Judge Dick a report published in the Richmond Dispatch from its Washington correspondent. Judge Dick read it over and, smiling good naturedly, said:

"The statement is entirely unauthorized by me. I have had an attack of illness, but my health is daily improving and while I am able I shall continue to hold court."

"I have been on the bench of the supreme court of the state and the federal court of the district for more than twenty nine years and have never in that time missed a term of court. It is my purpose to remain on the bench as long as my physical and mental vigor will enable me to discharge efficiently my official duties."

I have been in the legal profession for more than fifty years and would be at a great loss without some employment in that line of thought and investigation.

I have served four years beyond the age for retiring, being now seventy-four years old, but have the example of many eminent judges for remaining on the bench."

"I believe that my course of action on the bench has not met with the disapproval either of my professional brethren or of the general public. I think my mental vigor is as great as at any period of my life. I believe my experience has qualified me to discharge the duties of Judge efficiently and satisfactorily."

And here is hoping all reports of like nature may be unfounded for years to come.

MURPHY ON TRIAL

For Burning Jacob Jones' Store Last Saturday Morning.

The case against W. L. Murphy for burning the store of Jacob Jones last Saturday morning about 3 o'clock, is being heard before his Honor Mayor Nelson in the court house this afternoon. The state is represented by Messrs. Bynum & Taylor, and the defendant by Messrs. Staples, Barringer and Schenck. On motion of Mr. Schenck the witnesses were separated.

Jacob Jones was the first witness, says he does business on East Market street, and that last Saturday morning his store was destroyed by fire. That defendant also does a mercantile business and their stores are close together. There has been some feeling between them for the past several months. Murphy first got mad with Jones because he (Jones) would not rent him a small house which was in his possession. Murphy's cow got in Jones' potato patch and it was ordered out, and in half an hour the cow was in his tomato patch. Being asked to stop the depredations of his cow Murphy got mad and told Jones "he would get him yet."

He also cursed Jones' clerk about a transaction in buying some eggs. Jones says he had about $600 in goods in the store when burned.

Rufus Donnell says he has been clerking for Jones. His evidence corroborated, in the main, the testimony of Jones.

Tom Dellinger says that himself and five others were on the railroad near the store, and saw a man under an Oak tree about 60 yards from the store. Going from there home he found it was ten minutes past two o'clock. As we close our forms this witness is being examined.

The evidence against the prisoner is of a circumstantial character, and it is impossible at the present stage of the proceedings to form an idea of what his Honor will do with the case. There are a good many witnesses yet to be examined.

Governor McLaurin, of Mississippi, has appointed H. D. Money to fill out the unexpired term of the late United States Senator George.

Dispatches from Skagway, Alaska, state that a number of fatal and other accidents to gold hunters who were crossing the passes have occurred.

POINTS FROM HIGH POINT.

Personal and Local Affairs Briefly Mentioned.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 13, '97.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Banner died in this place Monday afternoon. The remains were taken to Mt. Airy yesterday for burial.

Mr. D. L. Clark has just completed a life size oil portrait, of Hon. Frank Caldwell, of Greensboro, to be presented to the Oak Ridge Institute.

Hon. J. Q. Holton, of Yadkinville is in the city today.

The home lyceum which has been an important factor in the social life of the young folks for several years, held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mr. H. Alexander last evening. Mr. Tate requests the club to meet at his home next Tuesday evening.

Mr. D. H. Parnill left this morning for Cleveland, N. C., in the interest of the High Point Machine Works.

Mr. Tucker, a well known member of the Eastern Field Trial, club arrived this morning with about 25 dogs which he will put in training for the coming trials.

Greensboro vs. Guilford College.

Athletic Park is being gotten in shape for the game of football on Friday afternoon between Greensboro and Guilford College, both teams are practicing each day preparatory to doing battle.

Those wishing to see a first class game of football should not fail to be on hand at the date named.

The hour at which the game will be called, will give our High Point friends an opportunity to see the game. They can come down on the 12 o'clock train and return at 6.25.

The price of admission will be 25c. for adults and 10 cents for children.

A Time or Two Too Much.

In speaking of Mr. Charlie Pugh's accident yesterday, THE TELEGRAM stated that he was run over a time or two, which was, of course, a mistake. Mr. Pugh was run over only once. He was driving down Davis street, almost to Church street, before the horse began to run, and he was thrown out, when the wagon struck the hydrant in front of the Presbyterian church.

The Work of a Sneak Thief.

While Dr. Wyche was doing some dental work for a lady yesterday a sneak thief stole her purse from the ante-room. She laid down the purse and put her hat over it on entering the office but the thief found it for all that. There is not, so far as we have heard, any clue to the guilty party.

Indianapolis Democratic.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 12. — At 10 o'clock tonight the Republicans had conceded the election of Mayor Taggart (Democrat), by 5,000, and the rest of the Democratic ticket by from 3,000 to 4,000. It is hard to figure the gains and losses on account of recent changes in precinct boundaries. Ex-President Harrison's precinct shows a large Democratic gain; in fact, the Democrats made heavy gains in Republican strongholds.

Pierpont Morgan off to Enrope.

New York, Oct. 13. — J. Pierpont Morgan sailed from this port for London this morning. It is rumored that he goes for the purpose of effecting certain changes in his London banking house.

JUSTICE FIELD TO RETIRE

And Attorney-General McKenna to Succeed Him.

THE STEP UNDER ADVISEMENT.

Believed that Field Will Make Way for Younger and More Active Men. Some Important Cases—Other News by Wire.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 13. — It is believed by the friends of Justice Field that he will announce his retirement from the Supreme court bench during the present term though he will say nothing about the matter for publication.

Today Attorney-General McKenna is regarded as his almost certain successor. To a reporter Judge Field sent word that he was not feeling well. Mrs. Field would neither confirm nor deny the report but gave the impression that the step is under serious consideration.

At the Supreme court nothing is known though the members evidently believe that Judge Field has decided to make way for a younger and more active man. This is shown by the fact that the court postponed the hearing, until the first of the year, of several very important cases. By that time Field's successor will likely be in office.

FIRE IN THE SHERMAN HOUSE.

Panic While the Guests Were Escaping.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—At 2 o'clock fire broke out in the Sherman House, one of the leading hotels in the city, but it is not yet known how extensive it will be. The hotel is one of the largest in the city, but at present is undergoing repairs, and has not as many guests as usual.

Fire Under Control.

Chicago, Oct. 13. — The fire in the Sherman House was not gotten under control until it had done damage amounting to five thousand dollars.

Nobody was injured though there was a great panic while the guests were escaping from the hotel.

"GENTLEMEN, TAKE THE CASE."

The Case of Mrs. Atkinson Now in The Hands of a Jury.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Glenview, W. Va. Oct. 13.—The case of Mrs. Myra Atkinson, wife of Governor Atkinson, went to the jury the first thing this morning. The case has attracted much attention and a large crowd is waiting anxiously for the verdict. If the jury does not agree promptly the judge will probably take them with him on the next circuit.

MISS CISNEROS IN NEW YORK.

She Suffered Greatly from Seasickness.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 13. — Evangelina Cisneros, who recently escaped from a Cuban prison by the aid of the New York Journal reporters, arrived here on the Ward line steamer Seneca this morning.

Miss Cisneros suffered greatly from seasickness on the trip over.

COSTLY HOG CHOLERA.

Killed $15,000,000 Worth of Hogs Last Year.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Des Moines, Ia. Oct. 13.—John Cowe who has been making a series of tests in an effort to find a cure for hog cholera reports that all have been failures. He says the disease killed fifteen million dollars worth of hogs last year and the loss this year will be equally large.

Today's Appointments.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 13th.—The President made the following appointments today: William A. Prescott, of New Jersey, Consul at Rheims, France; Collectors of customs: John H. Bethel, district of Richmond Va; Jesse W. Elliott, district of Newport News, Virginia; William B. Shephard district of Apalachicola, Florida.

Dayton on the Fence.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 13.—Ex-Postmaster Charles Dayton is still on the fence regarding the probability of his becoming a candidate on the George ticket for comptroller. He has given out, however, that he will fight Croker to the end.

CHANLER DYING.

The Ex-Husband of Amelia Rives and Grandson of J. J. Astor.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 13. — John Armstrong Chanler, the great grandson of John Jacob Astor, and former husband of Amelia Rives, now Princess Troubetskoy, whose writings have made her famous, is ill, with no hope of his recovery. His family has given out a story that he is traveling in Europe but as a matter of fact he is in a sanitarium at Philadelphia.

Some time ago the woman who was his wife suffered from nervous prostration.

Silver in the Bank of England.

London, Oct. 11.—The Times in its financial article this morning expresses the belief that so far as the Bank of England is concerned nothing more will be heard of the offer to hold silver as a portion of the reserve. Proceeding, it says it deprecates the "Mischievous effect the Governor's letter has had abroad," and it quotes at length from a letter written by a big American manufacturer, whose name is not given, dilating upon and regretting the fact that the bank's offer was to some extent a confession of the advisability of what Mr. Bryan had claimed.

Democrats Win in Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 12.—The municipal election resulted in the overwhelming defeat of the Republican ticket. Col. Ed. Watkins, Democrat, was elected mayor 995 majority. Col. Watkins is a leading lawyer and promoter. The Democrats elected six out of eight aldermen. The city is normally Republican by from 400 to 500, and the overwhelming reversal is due to the apathy of the Republican voters, and the disaffection of the negroes. There was a light vote polled.

Planning a Big Demonstration.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 13.—The Cuban patriots here are greatly elated over the escape and safe arrival of Miss Cisneros and are planning a big demonstration in her honor.

NATIONAL INGRATITUDE.

Some one has said that "Republics are always ungrateful." It is doubtless true. It also true that all people are, in the aggregate, ungrateful. National gratitude, when manifested at all, seldom falls to the lot of those who have been most the nation's benefactors. The man who attempts and achieves for the sake of his country is forgotten; the man who attempts and fails is often overwhelmed with abuse, held in execration.

No man has fought more nobly for a nation than William E. Gladstone has for Ireland. He gave to the cause of the Irish people some of the best years of his life. He made Home Rule for Ireland the leading issue in English politics, bringing to its support all the power of the greatest statesman of the century, with the possible exception of Bismarck. He incurred the censure of his own people and earned the epithet of disorganizer of the British Empire and even of traitor to the English flag. He pitted himself against the stolid conservatism and bull dog tenacity of the English people and pushed the fight to the very verge of victory. Failing powers finally forced him from the field.

While he was fighting Ireland's battles on the hustings, through the press, in parliament, his bitterest opponent was a section of the Irish people. That he ultimately failed was due, in large measure, to Ireland herself. Turbulent, factious, fanatical, the Irish were the worst possible allies, even if they had been a unit, which they were not. To have missed achievement so narrowly under such circumstances was the greatest proof of his great ability and greater devotion that Gladstone gave in all his long career.

For "all the pain and shame" he suffered in her cause what return does Ireland make him? In a vast meeting in Dublin Irishmen cheered to the echo when he was termed the "Englishman who betrayed Ireland." The mention of his name was the signal for a storm of hisses. If aught can prove that Gladstone was wrong and England right this has proved it.

Ireland hisses the name of Gladstone! Let us hear no more of "oppressed and down-trodden Ireland," of the "warm-hearted and sympathetic Irish." This is not the ingratitude of mere forgetfulness. It is open, knowing, intentional wrong of a benefactor. History can show nothing baser, nothing more hateful.

THE ROLL OF HONOR.

There is considerable talk going the rounds over the action of the committee in excluding the name of Thomas Moore from the poets' roll of honor on the walls of the new congressional library because he wrote abusive poems on America and some distinguished Americans. The Baltimore Sun and the Hibernian Order are almost in tears over it.

As a matter of fact it does seem a little like puerile spite at a cursory glance. It is difficult to see however that a nation is under any obligation to honor a man who did it a deliberate injustice. It is sort of monument to the poets whose names are inscribed there and the shade of Moore can scarcely complain that a people whom he ridiculed while alive does not choose to help his memory to a living now that he is dead.

We are not advised as to the dimensions of the wall that is to be inscribed but it is just possible that, as the building is to stand for sometime, it may be a question of space. In such case what chance would Tom Moore's name stand in a contest with those who indite lyrics to Pear's soap, Castoria or Oleomargarine? Some regard must be had to popular attention and some concessions must be made to legislative taste.

Besides there is Mr. J. Gordon Coogler, of Columbia, South Carolina for whom a good square yard or so must be saved against the day when he shall utter his swan song and pass in his chips. He is the laureate of the trolley car as Cy Worman is of the freight train. Under such circumstances why should the "Last Rose of Summer" not continue to "pine on the stem" and the Peri still "at the gate of Eden stand disconsolate?"

Moore wrote somewhat about the vale of Cashmere too. Does anybody suppose that anything, even a poet, could get through congress with the taint of the cashmere goat about it without paying a duty? Admirers of Tommy should moderate their demands.

MR. HENRY WATTESON, of Louisville, seems weighted with some doubt as to which of the New York parties he should advise not to "compromise with dishonor."

UNLESS the Greensboro football team plays a game pretty soon we shall probably have more odious comparisons of foot ball to prize fighting.

THE Hon. Chauncey Depew has been orating down in Nashville. With the after-dinner bacillus on the scene the yellow fever scare should speedily abate.

If indications indicate Senator Tillman is not the only jaundiced statesman that our sister Carolina has within her borders.

GENERAL WEYLER is now in a position to make some contributions to the magazines on "The Rebels I Did Not Whip."

It should greatly encourage sympathetic people to know that Dawson City has a reserve of two thousand dogs.

It is poor consolation to those gold-seekers who were drowned to know that the name of the lake was Shallow.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

There were 8,000 people at the circus in Concord and only three arrests were made for drunkenness.

Three or four business houses, including a blacksmith shop, were burglarized in Hickory. Merchandise was secured but no money.

Mrs. Watson, of Raleigh, who was shot by her husband is still alive but partially paralyzed. Little hope is entertained of her recovery.

Sales Weldon, a young white man about 21 years of age, fireman on the Warrenton railroad, fell from a moving freight train yesterday morning and was instantly killed.

It is learned that much money has been saved to the cattle men of the Western part of the State by the prompt action of Commissioner Mewborne in having the Virginia quarantine on North Carolina cattle raised.

The cotton gin of Hugh J. White, near Warrenton, took fire night before last, and burned over twenty bales of cotton, but the gin was saved with small loss. The origin of the fire is supposed to be a match in the seed cotton.

Supt. Mebane yesterday received a letter from W. W. Stone, chairman of the Lincoln Monumental League, San Francisco, asking him to use his influence in the observance of Lincoln Day—February 28th—in all the public schools of this and other States.

The Western Carolina bank of Asheville has gone into liquidation. The reasons assigned are diminishing deposits and inability to secure cash. The bank has a capital of $50,000 and $160,000 in deposits. The officials of the bank claim that the stockholders and depositors will lose nothing.

Dr. Richard H. Lewis, secretary of the State board of health, says there will be a health conference at Goldsboro on the plan of those already held at Salisbury, Wilmington and Charlotte. The purpose is that the State board of health may consult and confer with the people and to advance the cause of sanitation.

"I have always been a Populist," said Mr. L. J. Williams, of Chatham county, yesterday, but the last Legislature converted me. I'm for a white man's government hereafter. I honestly believe that if there was an election in North Carolina tomorrow the state would go Democratic by 50,000 majority.—News and Observer.

The Governor has pardoned Fred Lawrence, convicted of larceny at the July term, 1894, of Buncombe Criminal Court, and sentenced to four years on the roads. He has served three years. The pardon was urgently recommended by Judge Jones and Solicitor Carter, together with other officers and several hundred citizens. Lawrence has a wife and sick daughter dependent upon him for support.

Mrs. John Huntly, who was killed by lightning at Union Ridge church, two miles south of Salem, Sunday night, was buried in the graveyard at that place yesterday. With one exception the eight people who were severely shocked by the same bolt of lightning are getting along nicely. The exception is Mrs. Ella Weisner, who is badly burned about the head and breast and she will not live, it is feared.

There was a boy in our town,

With all his might and main
He jumped into a suit of them

A Home Remedy

ENDORSED BY

Home People.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 5, 1895.

MRS. JOE PERSON
Madam:—last year I was afflicted with some skin trouble affecting my feet, pronounced by my physician to be erythema. I was confined to my room for some two months and was lame for six months or more. After trying many remedies without effecting a cure, I resorted to your Remedy. After taking three bottles I began to improve, and before I had finished the fifth or sixth bottle I was practically free of the trouble. Once since then there recurred symptoms of its return, when I again resorted to your Remedy, and again the trouble disappeared. I believe I am indebted to you for relief from a very serious affliction.
Yours truly,
HAMILTON C. JONES.

E. W. Rayle and Harry Harrington went squirrel hunting yesterday, and as a result a tail—only one little squirrel tail adorns our sanctum. Of course they killed a good many of the little grey beauties, but they were too heavy to bring to town.

Tom Williams, colored, was arrested by Officers Whittington and Jordan yesterday afternoon in West's bar. Tom is, in some way, mixed up with the disreputable which has been carried on at Bullock's place. The mayor will prescribe for him.

Cards were received here today announcing the marriage of Mr. D. Sherman Hoover to Miss Blanch Vivien Facer, in Philadelphia. Mr. Hoover resides in Washington City, and is a native Guilford boy. Our congratulations to these people, and may a life of joy be theirs.

The engine that fell through the drawbridge over the Chowan river on the 1st of September, on the Pinners Point division of the Southern railway, passed through this place this morning, going to the shops at Spencer for overhauling. This engine, which weighs only 140,000 pounds, was raised by a wrecking company of Norfolk out of twenty feet of water. While it is some the worse for its bath it will probably be on the road again.

A RECKLESS PRACTICE.

Man Came Near Being Chopped Up Last Night.

People have often been warned by newspapers, posted notices and railroad officials against attempting to board moving trains. They have also been horror-stricken by reading blood-curdling accounts of mangled and torn bodies caused by this careless and dangerous practice. Yet they continue to risk their lives in this way.

Last night as the southbound vestibule pulled out a man apparently 60 years old, attempted to get aboard, missed the hand-railing and fell between steps onto the track. The train was fortunately moving slowly or he would have been ground to pieces. It would have resulted in certain death, any way but for the timely and quick help of two other parties who saw him fall and pulled him from under the wheels. The train was stopped and the man taken aboard unhurt. But it was a breathless moment for the spectators, who expected to witness a most horrible death.

Thus a note of warning is sounded again. Will it be heeded?

It occasionally happens that a man is compelled to board a moving train or get left, but it is a rare occurrence. Even then it is better to get left than take so great a risk. But it is frequently noticed that passengers stand around carelessly talking and laughing until the last coach of the train is passing, and then risk limb and life in an effort to catch it.

If you get left another train will come along presently and stop long enough for you to get on. If you get your head cut off beneath the cruel wheels, the business is all over.

I HAVE MOVED my shoe shop to S. Elm, next door south of Vuncanon's store. L. E. ALBERSON. 013-2t

THE GREAT MELVILLE.

The World's Greatest Rider—With Robinson and Franklin Circus.

This wonderful bareback rider, famed all over the civilized world, is one of the feature "Artists" with the Great John Robinson and Franklin Bros.' Enormous Combined Shows. He is the only living rider who has appeared before the crown heads of Europe, and would never permit his name to be identified with any but the very best tented amusements. Mr. Melville is the embodiment of grace. His work is so cleverly done that it has the appearance of excessive ease. He springs upon the back of a swiftly running horse as readily as the ordinary man mounts a chair. His thrilling riding created a furore. He conquers his audience by the mastery of his art. Long after the show has come and gone, admiring thousands dilate on the marvel of his performance. This worthy rider is in worthy company. He is surrounded by the strongest array of American and European arctic stars ever gathered together. Innumerable great features enchain the attention of the audience. Schools of educated ponies, goats, pigs and baby elephants; a double troupe of Royal Japanese; thrilling aerial acts by the greatest of all aerial performers, Siegrist and Silbon, and many others; equestrian acts by more than a score of justly celebrated lady and gentlemen riders; arctic sports and pastimes of ancient Rome, together with a real Roman hippodrome. The only elephant riding lion and numerous other features. The entire show will exhibit at Greensboro, Saturday, Oct. 16th.

The Plans Accepted.

The plans and specifications drawn by Prof. J. M. Bandy for a bridge over Reedy Fork creek, at Fulk's Mill, have been accepted, we are told, by the chairman of the board of county commissioners, who is empowered to award the contract.

The bridge will be 200 feet long and the material to do the work, according to the plans, will cost $344. We understand the material has been ordered and the work will soon commence.

Bound Over to Court.

Some of the parties arrested on Saturday were up for trial before Justice Eckel this morning.

Addie Cecil and Ella Hobbs were tried for assault on Queen McNath with deadly weapons. Cecil was bound over to court in $50 bond and Hobbs was discharged.

Ella Cecil was bound over to court in a $50 bond for assault on Ella Poplin. The bond was given.

Each one Separate.

If each lump of coal was separate, with legs to walk on and arms to wash and brush itself clean, it would be just a little cleaner, and could get into your cellar just a little easier than it does at present. Mind you, only just a little. We think we have the cleanest and best coal ever mined, and that we deliver it as carefully and promptly as it can be done. We should be glad to have your opinion and we'll treat you fairly.
